COLLEEN SMITH

Partner, Global Vice Chair, Securities Litigation & Professional Liability Practice; Global Vice Chair, Public Company & Board Representation Practice; Global Vice Chair, Training & Career Enhancement Committee

Latham & Watkins LLP

Colleen Smith is the Vice Chair of Latham's Securities Litigation Practice, Vice Chair of Latham's Public Company & Board Representation Practice, and Vice Chair of the firm's Training & Career Enhancement Committee. She helps public companies prevent or navigate litigation issues arising from class actions, M&A, activism, Delaware corporate governance, and SEC enforcement matters. She has recently led key wins including: winning a rare JNOV for San Diego-based Impact Biomedicines after leading a four-week trial; winning dismissal of class actions for Homology Medicines, Atlassian, The Trade Desk, TuSimple, and Teleperformance. She is currently representing Endeavor in high-profile merger litigation, as well as The Trade Desk CEO in the first CEO equity grant case since the challenge to Elon Musk's pay package. Before law school, Smith was one of the first women in the country to serve a US Naval Surface Warfare Officer on a combatant ship.
